While they do not (thankfully!) compare to the difficulty of the Sunday New York Times puzzles, these are just challenging enough to make some extra brain cells fire. Most puzzles can be completed in about 10 minutes for a nice little mental exercise. I am taking one star away from this book because of the size of the fillable puzzle box itself. I would have preferred a slightly larger puzzle area than the 2.5 inch x 3 inch square provided. In my estimation, the page layout could have accommodated a larger puzzle box without changing the size of the book. The font size of the puzzle clues is also on the small size but still legible, at least for these almost 50 year old eyes. The puzzles and clues printed in this collection are smaller than the Thomas Joseph puzzles that appear in my daily local newspaper. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Thomas Joseph puzzles By Customer Thomas Joseph has the best puzzles so the review is not about him. I just didn't like the puzzle book spiral binding. I can't really say why for sure. I cut off the card board binding from the spiral binding at the center. The back and front of the book is ok, but the binding at the center just did not suit me. The puzzles by Joseph are as always great. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Bargain entertainment. By Brent I love 'em.
