Dark and FunnyBy Karina MillerThis is a fantastic play by an incredibly talented playwright.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. So Engaging!!By shrutiIt is a good read.. Very well written.. It keeps you involved throughout...A very different and beautiful love story..

Highly recommended!! 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Worth It By Paul Moon I love this play. A very well written and exciting show that floors the gas pedal. The two characters, Maynard and Ginny, surprised me a lot, made me laugh and cringe, and watching their dynamic with each other grow throughout the play is something so human, I think we've all experienced something like it in our lives. Worth it, especially for the theatre student. Put this show up.

She's a chemical analyst. He's a poet. She has issues. He has scars. Separate they're unstable. Together they're combustible. 2 Damaged people, 1 Loaded Gun. A savage, witty drama about two people who don't want to die alone but find staying alive around other people intolerable. A battle of will, wit and emotion, 2 Very Dangerous People Sharing 1 Small Space is what happens when two suicidal people meet and fall in love. ROYALTY-FREE for educational and amateur production!

About the Author JOSHUA JAMES is a screenwriter, novelist and playwright based in New York City. As a playwright, Joshua made his London debut when The Men's Room was produced at the Croydon Warehouse Theatre. He made his Off-Broadway debut in The Fear Project at The Barrow Group with his piece Extreme Eugene. His plays have been produced throughout New York City, Los Angeles, Chicago, all across the United States and various other parts of the world. His most recent book is THE JOSHUA JAMES PROJECT, an anthology of forty-four short plays that are now royalty-free for educational and amateur production. His film credits include POUND OF FLESH, starring Jean-Claude Van Damme. Joshua loves ice-cold tea, cool summer breezes and hot Brazilian Jiu-jitsu, though not necessarily in that order.
