A collection of 303 two-, three- and four-move checkmates for all levels of chess players. Mates are presented in order of difficulty, from simple to very complex, and challenges are provided from both the black's and the white's point of view so players learn to see both sides of the board.

About the AuthorFred Wilson and Bruce Alberston are well-known chess trainers and teachers and are co-authors of 303 Tricky Chess Tactics, 303 Tricky Checkmates, 303 Tricky Chess Puzzles and 202 Checkmates for Children.
