From Steidl : Alessandra dUrso Alessandra Borghese: Jubileum before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Alessandra dUrso Alessandra Borghese: Jubileum:

Jubileum is an artistic reportage of the 201516 Jubilee of Mercy, the celebration of the Catholic Holy Year proclaimed by Pope Francis and centered around St. Peters Basilica in Rome. The Jubilee, held every 25 to 50 years since first instigated by Boniface VIII in 1300, is a time of universal pardon, where pilgrims head to Rome to renew their faith. Alessandra dUrso and Alessandra Borghese gained privileged access to the Vatican to document the Jubilee, as a result of Borgheses respected experience as a writer and journalist in the field. DUrso's photos depict the little-seen rituals and grand settings of the Church. Perhaps more importantly, she captures the details that convey the experience of pilgrimage: the Popes shadow cast on a marble floor, rosary beads hanging from fingertips, shafts of sunlight in St. Peters.
