Jonathan Poppele : Animal Tracks of the Rocky Mountains (Nature's Wild Cards) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Animal Tracks of the Rocky Mountains (Nature's Wild Cards):

Play cards and learn about birds! This gorgeous deck, put together by award-winning author Stan Tekiela, features real photos of 52 of the most common and appreciated bird species of the states bordering the Gulf of Mexico, including the Painted Bunting, Blue Grosbeak, Summer Tanager, and more! Anyone who appreciates birds will love having these playing cards for their favorite games and for quick ID.

About the Author Jonathan Poppele is a naturalist, author, and educator with wide-ranging interests. He earned a masters degree in Conservation Biology from the University of Minnesota, studying citizen science, environmental education and how to cultivate a personal relationship with the natural world. He has taught college level environmental studies, biology, and writing courses and currently teaches in the Department of Writing Studies at the University of Minnesota. An avid outdoorsman and student of natural history, Jon is a member of the Astronomical League, the Minnesota Astronomical Society, the Minnesota Trackers Club, and the International Society for Professional Trackers.
