David Levinson Wilk : Really Clever Crosswords before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Really Clever Crosswords:

I previously purchased the "Super, Mighty, and Crazy" Clever Crosswords and enjoyed them thoroughly. Unfortunately, with "Really Clever Crosswords 2" I am being asked to enjoy the same puzzles again as they are repeats of what was published in the other three volumes. Don't make the mistake I did and buy both. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Major disappointment!! By Almay Major disappointment!!! I was expecting Mensa level difficulty and got NY Times Tuesday level at best. The cleverest part of this book is the title which hooks you into buying it. A waste of money for a serious solver. After doing less than 1/4 of the first puzzle I gave the book to my wife who does Mon.-Wed. NY Times and she had no problem solving them. If Mensa becomes aware that you've attached their name to this book, prepare yourself for a lawsuit! 10 of 10 people found the following review helpful. Beyond the Final By Julie P. Weeks David Levinson Wilk makes a great puzzle - much more fun than the end-of-week NY Times, but definitely challenging! Structured in the perfect size, not only as entertainment for a flight from SF to LA, but those longer stays in solitary confinement. His first book is also terrific - easier, but full of wit (clever) without needing to stretch the theme or format into a bad joke.

This fantastically cunning collection makes for great entertainment and smart solving. Created by a master constructor, these 72 really clever crosswords are brimming with inventive wordplay, tricky clues, and mind-melting themes. Each puzzle is a unique challenge of mental agility!
