Alexis Kosloff : Russian Ballet Technique: As Taught by Alexis Kosloff of the Imperial Russian Ballet School, Moscow (Classic Reprint) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Russian Ballet Technique: As Taught by Alexis Kosloff of the Imperial Russian Ballet School, Moscow

(Classic Reprint):

Excerpt from Russian Ballet Technique: As Taught by Alexis Kosloff of the Imperial Russian Ballet School, Moscow Ballet theory, when put into practise under the guidance of a good teacher, becomes a delightful source of knowledge pursued. With keen pleasure. To attain the style of a premiere danseuse requires a natural genius for the art and long hours of diligent drill. But the magical results gained in even the elementary training are well worth the time given to this most beautiful art - the possession of a means of making oneself and others happy.
