Eric Schiller : Sicilian Defense Richter-Rauzer Systems in Chess before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Sicilian Defense Richter-Rauzer Systems in Chess:

Sicilian Defense Richter-Rauzer Systems in Chess by Eric Schiller was originally published as three books and is now combined into one. The first book is Sicilian Modern Richter Rauzer Systems. Next is Sicilian Richter-Rauzer With A6. The third and last is Classical Richter-Rauzer. All this is updated with new games and new analysis in May 2015 with new material by Eric Schiller. Most games with the Sicilian Defense start with the moves 1. e4 c5 2. Nf3 d6 3. d4 cxd4 4. Nxd4 Nf6 5. Nc3 Now, if Black plays 5. . . . a6 it is the Najdorf Defense. If Black plays 5. . . . g6 it is the Dragon Defense. If Black plays 5. . . . Nc6 and then if White plays 6. Bg5 it is the Richter-Rauzer System named after Kurt Richter who was born 24 November 1900 in Berlin and died 29 December 1969 in Berlin and Vsevolod Rauzer who was born 16 October 1908 and died 29 December 1941 in Leningrad USSR.

About the Author Eric Schiller (born March 20, 1955 in New York City) is an American chess player, trainer, arbiter and one of the most prolific authors of books on chess in the 20th century. In 1974, Schiller was the Illinois Junior Champion. Schiller played for the University of Chicago team several times at the Pan American Intercollegiate Team Chess Championship. He was an organizer of the Hawaii International chess festivals 1994-98 including 1998 US Open California Champion 1995. Later that year, he appeared as a chess adviser for the music group Phish on some of the stops for their "Chess Tour" where they played an ongoing game of two chess moves per tour stop and some "band vs. audience" partial games as part of their stage performance. Schiller was an arbiter at several notable games and championships including the FIDE World Chess Championship 2000. While Vladimir Kramnik and Garry Kasparov opted not to participate in the event, they had both endorsed Schiller for this sensitive role during the planning stages. As of July 2005, Schiller has a FIDE rating of 2210. He is also an International Arbiter and International Trainer. Schiller's expertise and publications in the Flohr-Zaitsev Variation made him a sought-after expert when Gary Kasparov used that opening at the second game at the World Chess Championship 1990.
