From Visionaire Publishing, LLC : Visionaire #42: Scent before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Visionaire #42: Scent:

I'm having great results layering with these and getting some very dangerous combos - like Bentley Intense w/ a whiff o Violence. Midnight in Paris w/ a touch of Mother - the smell even more poetic than they sound. great stuff.13 of 15 people found the following review helpful. Smells good...By Jose RodriguezMy first impression of 42: Scent?Wow, here's a small white box that resembles a white vinyl-clad, padded, miniature fridge. And indeed upon opening it up it looks like the boys girls Visionaire have once again created a one-of-a-kind 'magazine' which any self-respecting collector must have. The box opens with a hidden magnetic closure to reveal the individual vials sitting in foam inserts at the right side with the book of accompanying images inserted on the left.I won't pretend to be the most knowledgeable person as far as odours fragrances go, but I really think they've created some unique scents here, in particular, no.15, which is quite funky. Though whether these are all specially made scents, or simply watered down classics like some sites are saying is beyond me.On the image side of it all; Visionaire have pretty much gone the sex route again. From a same sex tounge wrestle at the end, a woman's breasts covered in an unnamed substance, and a man 'enjoying' the company of a loaf of bread... well it's all very subtle.I recommend this mostly on the fact that it is a unique way to experience Visionaire's avante garde (even slightly bland) compilation of images.Otherwise just buy it for the little bottles of perfume.

What does cold smell like? What does it look like? And what about heat? Electricity? Softness? Visionaire, the fashion and art publication, explores the exciting world of scent. In collaboration with International Flavors Fragrances (IFF), Visionaire develops an innovative roster of modern scents that have never before been conceived. Experience abstract scents mixed by the best noses in the perfume industry and visually interpreted by leading image-makers from the world of fashion and art. The issue will consist of individual vials of exclusive scents that can be enjoyed over time, as well as full-color images, housed in a customized case. IFF works with 75 perfumers from around the world to create some of the most famous scents of our time: Yves Saint Laurent's Paris, Calvin Klein's Eternity, Clinique's Happy, Este Lauder's Aromatics Elixir and Beautiful, Lancome's Tresor, Ralph Lauren's Polo Blue, Costume National and Odeur 53 by Comme des Garçons, to name a few.
