Opens up and puts you in a pretty living room like it would have been as a child. It opens easily into the living room. I had no idea that it was a whole room--thought it was a flat card...but was pleasantly surprised. The material is a sturdy cardboard and it is easy to pull open the doors for the countdown to Christmas. Is so wonderful I have folded and stored for next year! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Needs Some Work By Triplem555 Would give it 5 stars but when you unfold it, right left side panels are TOO short. You can't set it up on a flat surface spread sides out without it collapsing. Great pics under the openings, though. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Love the pop-up By Amanda This is so great! Really well put together, creative and well made. I plan to reuse it for next year as the tabs fold back down sufficiently.

While waiting for Santa Claus to arrive, open a window each day of Advent and take a peek at Santa preparing for his big night from hitting the beach to making toys to visiting the tailor. This delightful pop-up Advent calendar features details from 24 whimsical, vintage American greeting cards from the 1940s and 1950s, and is sure to bring back memories as well as to create new ones.
