know the names of the strategies I use to solve, and I guess this book must be for those players who know what "swordfish" is or "study". I just want to do puzzles that challenge me and these seem to break the rules that I have found in my experience. I like very hard sudokus. It bugs me that it says "Harrowing",,,, now is that harder or easier than "Frighteningly Fierce"? So I stick with my easily rated black belt sudokus that I used once I went thru the Frank Longo Days of the Week series. Series can build skill but not make it a study. My favorite so far is Second Degree Black Belt by Frank Longo. I will be getting the Third.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Second one I've bought!By FlyeretteI already had this and it took me over a year to finish all the puzzles. It's spiral bound so it lays nice and flat. Also there's plenty of room in the margins to make note of what numbers have to go in that row or column. And they start out hard and get progressively harder! Really enjoyable! These will really test your Sudoku skills!1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy LorrynI have bought this book 3 times, it rocks!
