Anyone interested in improving their game or just learning how to play, I highly recommend this book.3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Delivers exactly what the title promisesBy Jasona R. ComptonAs a novice mah jong player, I found this book to be very helpful, with tips that have made me able to keep up with players significantly more experienced than I. I bought this book before Sandberg's book for beginners, but if I were to do it again, I would purchase both books and read the Beginner's book before this strategy book. The hottest tip is to play alone using your current card. I put all the tiles in a baggie, set up a rack and draw tiles to learn different hands on the card. GO MAHJ!!!!2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Great Game AideBy Linda K.Mah Jongg revival. It is new again. Learning how to play and this is so much fun. In our small town, I found out there were 200 women already playing this game. It is more fun and can be less serious than bridge. Beautiful tiles. There is a lot of strategy to be learned and stimulates your brain cells.
