My boyfriend and I love solving crossword puzzles together and we enjoyed these more "modern" ones. A lot of crossword books are older and reference TV shows and movies that have been a long time out of pop culture... those clues can be near impossible for a couple 20-somethings to solve without Google. This book is current and diverse in the clues without being try-hard. Also has quite a few "vocabulary" words in addition to the "hip" stuff, which as a former SAT all-star, I appreciate the chance to dust off. The only thing I don't like is I wish the book was larger or had spiral binding. It's hard to collaborate on these puzzles because someone has to hold the book open. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Second one I bought! By derrr.online This is my most favorite collection of crossword puzzles! It's got a hodgepodge of pop culture, my favorite! The only thing that I don't like about it is that the author didn't create more! If you aren't familiar with pop culture, you may not enjoy this set of crosswords. This was the second time I purchased this book (I couldn't find my first copy), and I was happy to. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. A little "YOUNG" for us, but ok. By Donna Barton A lot of reference to Sponge Bob, rap artists, things we in our late 40's don't get or care to get. We're doing the ones we can, then will pass on to our 21 year old to complete the rest. I would not recommend this for the Babyboomer gens.

Created by Natan Last, a senior at Brown University, three-time intern with Will Shortz, and in 2008 the youngest person to have a puzzle published in the Sunday New York Times, Word kicks the crossword puzzle squarely into the 21st century for a new generation of puzzle-lovers, replacing fusty crossword-ese with hip cultural references, modern wordplay, and a lively mix of high-and low-brow pop trivia. A Word puzzle begins with the shared knowledge of a literate but not-so-reverent generation, and celebrates the knowingness with a deft touch. Your parents crosswords make solvers feel smart. Word puzzles make solvers feel smart and cool, getting the references to The Daily Show, Mario Brothers, the Goo Goo Dolls, and a hefty dose of nostalgia (the name of the motel in Psycho). But they also know the core curriculum: Charlotte Brontes Jane, Roman generals, Berlioz and von Bismarck, Homer and not just Homer Simpson. The puzzles are constructed with all the smarts of a daily Times crossword: themes, interconnected clues, titles that unlock the overall puzzle (solve all the clues and the circle letters will spell out a famous name at Hogwarts). Assisting Mr. Last is a group of five more top under 25 constructors, all of whom have published puzzles in The New York Times.
