This lavishly produced two-volume catalog raisonné, created with the full participation of Yoshitomo Nara, is the most extensive, authoritative, and beautiful expression of the artist's work ever published. Featuring two 400-page volumes bound in fabric featuring Nara's designs, the catalog covers all of the artist's prolific output over the span of his career to date, including more than 4,500 paintings, drawings, editions, sculptures, photographs, and collaborations with other artists. Including new essays written by Nara himself as well as texts from Banana Yoshimoto, Takashi Murakami, Hiroshi Sugito, and Midori Matsui this unique reference is the definitive book on one of the world's most important contemporary artists.

"One of the absolute best collections of an artist's work that I've ever come across." -- Hi-Fructose
"This sleek, slip-cased set gives a full view of Nara's prolific, acid take on Japanese Pop cuteness." -- San Francisco Chronicle
"The gorgeous box set includes two 408-page volumes filled with the much-loved Japanese artist's sculptures, paintings, doodles, photographs, drawings and mixed media pieces representing the full breadth of his career." -- Flavorwire "The definitive collection of work by one of the most important and iconic pop artists of the last two decades." -- BoingBoing About the Author Yoshitomo Nara is one of the most popular and influential artists of his generation. His work has been featured in more than forty exhibitions around the world. He lives in Tochigi, Japan.
