Theatre for Young Audiences/USA : Young Playwrights for Change: An Anti-Bullying Play Anthology (Volume 1) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Young Playwrights for Change: An Anti-Bullying Play Anthology (Volume 1):

Young Playwrights for Change: An Anti-Bullying Play Anthology is a collection of fourteen short plays written by middle school students from across the United States on the subject of bullying. These plays won their local Young Playwrights for Change competitions and were then submitted to the national competition sponsored by Theatre for Young Audiences/USA and the American Alliance for Theatre Education. This collection represents the competition's inaugural year (2013-14).

About the Author Theatre for Young Audiences/usa (tyausa.org) is a national service organization whose mission is to promote the power of professional theatre for young audiences through excellence, collaboration, and innovation across cultural and international boundaries. Founded in 1965 as ASSITEJ/USA, TYA/USA is the only theatre organization in the United States which has the development of professional theatre for young audiences and international exchange as its primary mandates. The American Alliance for Theatre Education (aate.com) connects and inspires a growing collective of theatre artists, educators, and scholars committed to transforming young people and communities through the theatre arts.
