From Brand: Steidl : Zwei Schaferle mit Klob und eine Kinderportion Schnitzel mit Pommes Frites before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Zwei Schaferle mit Klob und eine Kinderportion Schnitzel mit Pommes Frites:

The Teller family business produces small parts for string instruments. Juergen Teller has taken photographs of company employees, his uncle and his uncle's collection of hunting trophies. He has also shot pictures in dripstone caves, of Kate Moss during her pregnancy and of himself. In the world of Juergen Teller, it somehow all fits together. Werkstatt--a studio or creative environment--collects, as Juergen Teller does, people and places. It combines scenes from the world he grew up in with selections from the world of beautiful images that he travels in today. Candid, subjective and completely without superficial affect, Teller offers a peek or two into his world. How it all fits together is left up to the viewer.

About the Author Juergen Teller was born in Erlangen in 1964. In 1986, he moved to London, where he has worked for magazines including I.D., The Face, Arena, Index and W while developing his photographic trademark. Counted among his well-known customers are Marc Jacobs, Helmut Lang, Calvin Klein, Yves Saint Laurent and Commes des Garçons. His works have been regularly exhibited since 1992. His most recent books are Go-Sees, Tracht, More and Marchenstuberl. Juergen Teller received the Citibank Photography Prize 2003.
